Oel- und Pastellbilder

“I was born in Dar es Salaam - Tanzania and spent my early childhood in my father's home country, - Switzerland. My family moved in 1968 to South Africa. I did my schooling there and completed my matric at Rhenish Girls High School with Art as my major subject. I attended the P.J. Olivier Art Centre in Stellenbosch. In 1986 I moved to North Dakota, USA. There I studied BA Fine Art at North Dakota State University. I had the great privilege to study under Prof. Wayne Tollefson, a colour theorist and painter who has published several books on colour theory. My favourite mentor is the artist Catherine Mulligan. She has exhibited world-wide and is one of America's finest artists. As a student I had three sell-out exhibits and worked with Catherine at her youth centre for teenagers on weekends.

I returned to South Africa in 1989 with my two children, Mary and Peter, where I continued painting and selling, including designing and making stained-glass windows. In 2000 I opened my own art centre, which offered a variety of art workshops for all ages. Since January 2003 I have been painting and establishing myself from home.”

Geboren in Tanzania, verbrachte sie die Kindheit in der Schweiz. Später studierte sie Fine Art in North Dakota, USA. Zusammen mit Catherine Mulligan arbeitete sie in Projekten in einem Jugendzentrum und hatte drei erfolgreiche Ausstellungen in den USA. Seit 1989 lebt sie wieder in Südafrika, wo sie ein eigenes Art-Center mit verschiedenen Workshops führt. Angela Lundquist plant die Rückkehr in die Schweiz.
